PLANNING ADVISORY COMMITTEE

1. The council of each Town, which is not in a planning district, is required to establish by by-law a planning advisory committee, to be known as the “advisory committee.”
2. The advisory committee is to consist of five members, being persons eligible to vote under the Municipal Act and resident in the municipality, appointed by resolution of the council.
3. One member of the advisory committee is to be a councillor or servant of the municipality.
4. The resolution appointing the members should designate the chairman and vice-chairman, whose term as such is one year.
5. Although the term of office of members is three years, original appointments are made in such manner that the term of a member expires on the first day of January each year.
6. The attached model by-law may be used for the purposes of establishing the advisory committee.
7. The resolution of the council to appoint members to the advisory committee might read as follows.

MOVED by John Smith,

SECONDED, Jane Doe,

RESOLVED, that the following members are appointed to the advisory committee for the terms indicated:

- |                                 |                          |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------|
| A. Member #1 (Chairperson)      | until January 1, 20____. |
| B. Member #2 (Vice-Chairperson) | until January 1, 20____. |
| C. Member #3                    | until January 1, 20____. |
| D. Member #4                    | until January 1, 20____. |
| E. Member #5                    | until January 1, 20____. |

CARRIED

8. At the first meeting of the council during 20____, the council should re-appoint or replace the member whose term has expired and at the same time, designate or re-designate the officers for the year.
9. The council may remove any member of the advisory committee.
10. If the member who is a councillor or servant of the municipality ceases to be a councillor or servant, he ceases to be a member of the advisory committee unless the council fails to appoint another person to replace him/her.

11. A person appointed to replace a member is to be appointed for the remainder of the term of the member he/she replaces.
