

Human Rights Award Nomination Form

Every year, the New Brunswick Human Rights Commission recognizes New Brunswickers who have shown outstanding effort, achievement and/or leadership in the promotion of human rights, equality, non-discrimination and diversity. Our Human Rights Award recipients serve as examples to all New Brunswickers of the importance of making our province a welcoming, inclusive and just place for all.

The Commission recognizes recipients in two award categories. Please select the award category for your nominee below:

•	Human Rights Award □
•	Youth Human Rights Award  Note: The Youth Human Rights Award recognizes a youth or a group of young people under the age of 25 that contribute to the advancement of human rights in their communities.
	Nomination Deadline: May 31st

Along with this nomination form, please submit the following:

- Two letters of recommendation;
- If the nominee is an individual, a short biography or résumé;
- If the nominee is a group, a summary of its mission, objectives and history.
